EXAMINER'S STATEMENT OF REASONS FOR ALLOWANCE

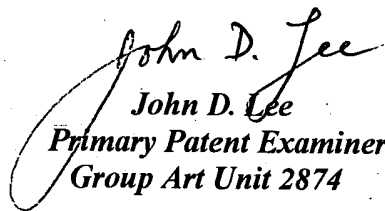

The following is an Examiner's Statement of Reasons for Allowance: Independent claim 1 has been amended to incorporate subject matter which was previously determined to patentably distinguish over the prior art (see paper number 1103, mailed December 5, 2003), and to thus make this claim allowable. Upon careful study, it is agreed that independent claim 25 already recites this same limitation and thus should not have been rejected as unpatentable over the Machida et al reference. This claim is thus also allowable. Independent claims 13, 19, and 45 were previously found to be patentably distinguishing over Machida et al, the closest prior art of record. All of the previously applied objections and rejections thus having been overcome by applicant's amendment, and further search by the Examiner having uncovered no additional relevant prior art, claims 1, 3-25, and 27-47 herein are allowed.

Any comments considered necessary by applicant must be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee and, to avoid processing delays, should preferably accompany the issue fee. Such submissions should be clearly labeled "Comments on Statement of Reasons for Allowance."

A "Notice of Non-Compliant Amendment" appears to have been mailed in this application on March 24, 2004. This Notice was mailed in error, and applicant is hereby advised to ignore its contents. The amendment mailed on March 5, 2004, and received on March 11, 2004, was fully compliant with the Rules of Practice, and was fully responsive to the Examiner's previous Office action.
